WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

MOUNT VERNON.

About two hundred people attended the good government meeting in the Reformed Church on Tuesday night. Mark D. Stiles presided, and government meeting in the Reformed Church on Tuesday night. Mark D. Stiles presided, and Oliver Hubbard was elected secretary. A non-partisan organization was agreed upon to see that clean candidates and those in favor of enforcing the laws are placed in nomination by both parties in future municipal elections. Enrolment blanks were circulated and a committee was appointed to draw up a constitution and bylaws, suggest a name for the organization and nominate officers. The committee, of which William Mains, F. N. Glover, John D. Fease, R. E. Wilcox and Lieutenant Henry E. Rhoades are members, nominated Mark D. Stiles for president and Mr. Hubbard for secretary. A vice-president for each ward in the city will be named at the next meeting. A resolution was adopted censuring certain members of the Police Commission for their alleged action in conniving at the violation of the excise laws by the saloonkeepers and by the Colored Democratic Club. The resolution called on Mayor Fiske to use his influence and authority to remove them as being unworthy of the offices they hold. Ex-City Judge Appell, who represents the legal interests of the saloonkeepers who are being prosecuted by the Christian Endeavor Society, was present, apparently for the purpose of obtaining points.

The Bronx Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution of this city has elected the following new officers: Regent, Mrs. Roger M. Sherman; vice-regent, Miss Susanna Maude Stone; register, Mrs. William L. Stone; secretary, Mrs. H. P. Wilcox: treasurer, Mrs. Frank M. Tichener, and historian, Mrs. Elizabeth S. Ward.

PORT CHESTER.

Mamaro Lodge, F. and A. M., has elected Joseph O. Studweil, Master; Joseph Haight, jr., Senior Warden; Herbert Powell, Junior Warden; William Boyd, treasurer; Joseph Provoort, secretary, and Village President John W. McCarty trustee for NEW-ROCHELLE.

Patrolmen Brooks and Myers, who were dismissed from the force last spring, have just won another victory over the Board of Police Commis-sioners. By a decision handed down on Tuesday sioners. By a decision handed down on Tuesday by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court they are ordered reinstated, with their back salaries and court expenses. The decision affirms the opinion of Justice Gaynor. The Commissioners will probably carry the case to the Court of Appeals in order to delay the reinstatement of the appellants until they can get a charter amendment through the Legislature to increase the force. It is now fimited to twelve men, and if the Commissioners should reinstate Myers and Brooks there would be fourteen. Both of the ex-policemen have secured other places and are doing well.

MAMARONECK.

Justice Keogh in the Supreme Court at White Plains yesterday, on application of Rawson L. Smith, counsel for Annie Bain and five others, granted a writ of certiorari directed to the village of Mamaroneck for a review of the plaintiffs' curbing and flagging assessments. It is alleged that the assessments are illegal and that the property owners cannot be compelled to pay for the improvements. No date has been set for the return of the writ.

WHITE PLAINS.

The Board of Supervisors yesterday adopted Supervisor See's resolution vacating the office of usel to that body, except as to the matter already in the hands of the present counsel to the Board. The resolution also provided that hereafter Board. ommendation of the Judiciary Committee, and then only in matters specified in resolution, and a majority vote of the members will be required to make such appointment.

The designation of a physician to the county jail, which was set for yesterday, was laid over until Monday. The Board adjourned at mon to visit the Westchester Temperary Home for Destitute Children. The members were shown through the Institution by James Wood, the president, and James W. Pierce, the superintendent. The different departments were carefully inspected and a deep interest was taken in the work of the children, particularly in the manual training department. Dinner was served, after which President Wood addressed the guests. After reviewing the growth of the Home for the last twenty years, and also the work accomplished, he urged upon the Supervisors the edvisability of increasing the county's share toward the support of the children; to establish a burial ground for the dead and to pay the expenses of treating hospital patients, now defrayed by the contributions of the people interested in the home's welfare. President Wood's recommendations will be acted upon by the Board. The Supervisors today will visit the New-York Catholic Protectory, at West Chester.

Miss Gertrude Gribbel and Irving N. Tompkins were married last evening at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Giberson, in Grand-st.

NOT AN EPIDEMIC OF GLANDERS.

According to the Board of Health and many of the owners of large stables in Harlem, there is no epidemic of glanders in that part of the city. The horses with glanders seem to have been confined to the stable of Frederick Hulberg, at No.

The foreman of Hulberg's stable said yester-

NEW-YORK CITY.

Postmaster Van Cott announces that mails from China, Japan and Hawaii of the following dates: Hong Kong, November 14; Shanghal, November 18; Yokohama, November 25; Honolulu, December 5, which arrived at San Francisco on the steamer America Maru, are due here Saturday morning. A generous response has been made to the ap peal of the Ladies' Auxiliary Society of St. Mark' Hospital for gifts of pictures, bric-a-brac, toys, etc. for their old curiosity sale at the hospital buildings, No. 179 Second-ave. The sale takes place today, to-morrow and Saturday from 2 to 6 and 8 to 10 p. m., and is free to the public.

The Harlem Republican Club elected the following officers Tuesday night: President, James Y. Watkins; first vice-president, James A. Cryan; second vice-president, John B. Carss; recording second retary, W. V. A. Poe: corresponding secretary, S. A. Safford, and treasurer, Henry C. Robinson.

THREE LAWYERS ASSIGNED TO BURNZ.

THE BOY MURDERER'S FATHER KISSES HIM AS HE IS LED OUT OF COURT.

Edgar C. Burnz, the murderer of Herbert B.

Fellows, postmaster and station agent at Scarsdale, Westchester County, was again arraigned before Justice Martin J. Keogh in the Supreme Court at White Plains yesterday. His father, Channing Burnz, was in the courtroom when his young son was led in by Deputy Sheriff Jarvis, and Mr. Delavan, his lawyer, then informed the Court that Mr. Burnz, though anxious to render all the assistance possible to his son, was unable to employ counsel, and submitted an affidavit to that effect.

Justice Keogh immediately assigned ex-County
Judge Isaac N. Mills, of Mount Vernon; ex-County
Clerk John M. Digney, of White Plains, and Ralph E. Prime, of Yonkers, to defend the boy. As he was about to be taken back to his cell his father threw his arms around his son's neck and kissed him. They talked together for a minute, and then parted, the father appearing greatly afflicted
by the trouble brought upon him, but the son maintained the vacant stair and nonchalant air which have characterized him since his arrest.
The case will be tried in February.

WOMAN SERIOUSLY HURT BY A RUNAWAY.

DOCTORS THINK HER SKULL MAY BE FRACT-URED.

Mrs. Augustus C. Beyer, wife of Justice Beyer, of Harrison, met with a serious accident last even-ing while out driving. Her horse took fright at a trolley car and ran away, throwing her out. Her head struck against a curbstone with such force as to cut the scalp open from temple to temple. She had not regained consciousness last evening and the doctors fear her skull is fractured. Three weeks ago while out riding with her five-year-old son at Rye Lake the horse ran away, throwing Mrs. Beyer out.
